Farmers are confident that they will harvest as good a crop of hay as has been seen hereabouts for many years. The frequent rains and the cold weather are just the things to make it grow.

The four buyers took in nearly three tons of butter here Monday, the liveliest market-day of the season thus far. The price was somewhat lower than the week before, 15 cents being paid for the best.

The committee on flowers for Decoration day request that those who contribute or solicit flowers bring them to the engine-room hall promptly at 8 o'clock Monday morning, and that they bring them all ready for use either in the shape of designs or bouquets. A friend hands us a copy of the Chautauque Review, which gravely informs its readers that "the fifth annual shearing of the Vermont Merino Sheep Shearing association was held at Montpelier, a few days ago." The Review is wrong. Montpelier now holds its shearings only biennially; and lambs, not sheep, are shorn. It is held, not in April, but in the fall, and continues till the howls of constituents and Thanksgiving break up the meeting.

Last Sunday afternoon Mr. F. A. Bond, chairman of the devotional committee, presided at the meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms. Rev. J. J. Noe spoke upon the threefold nature of man, the physical, the intellectual and the spiritual. He treated especially of the first, dwelling upon the ways in which the physical nature may be injured. Mr. Parsons has been absent at East Poultony to attend the annual meeting of the Congregational churches of Rutland county, at which he spoke of his work before coming to Middlebury. The Bible meeting Monday evening and the young men's meeting Wednesday evening were held as usual.

MEMORIAL DAY IN MIDDLEBURY.

The Memorial-day services on Monday next are likely to equal in interest those of recent years. James M. Slade, Esq., will be the orator. At the meeting of the committees, Tuesday evening, few were present, owing, probably, to the storm. Arrangements were perfected, however; and though much work yet remains to be done, the prospect is that everything will be in readiness at the appointed time. As only one or two of the floral committee appointed at the former meeting were present at this, it was thought best to appoint E. A. Barney as chairman of such committee, with power to call to his assistance those whom he wished; and he has named the following: Mrs. Chas. Yount, Mrs. Wallace, Misses Josie Gee, Lizzie O'Leary, Jessie Stewart, Lena Tracy, Rhube Russell, Hattie Daniels and Minnie Bell. The hall over the steamer room will be the headquarters of the floral committee, who are requested to meet there promptly at 8:30 Saturday morning for work. Contributions of flowers are solicited.

Monday morning at 9 o'clock, sharp, the line will form on Pleasant street with the right in front of the Addison House, and march thence to the cemetery. On returning the oration will be delivered in the town hall. This is the ORDER OF EXERCISES:

I. THE PROCESSION: 1, Band; 2, Knights Templar; 3, Fairmount Engine Co.; 4, Camp Tracy, Sons of Veterans; 5, Grand Army Post and other Veterans, preceded by Drum Corps; 6, speaker; 7, Carriages with flowers; 8, Graded School; 9, Citizens on foot; 10, Citizens in Carriages.

II. AT THE CEMETERY: Full Decoration-day ceremonies of the Grand Army of the Republic.

III.—AT THE HALL: 1, Music by the Band; 2, Prayer; 3, Singing; 4, Oration; 5, Singing; 6, Music by the Band; 7, Benediction.

We give below a list of the soldiers buried in town. Those knowing of others are asked to report them to the committee of which Geo. W. Pinney is chairman:

Cotton, Daniel Sullivan, Jerry Haley, James Murphy, Geo. Huntington, John Donahue, Albert Holden.

GEN. SHERIDAN'S LECTURE.

The lecture on Gen. Grant which Gen. George A. Sheridan will give at the town hall on Wednesday evening next ought to have many hearers. Gen. Sheridan is one of the few real orators in the country, and is in great demand in the Western States during close campaigns. An Ohio man, who has heard him many times, and is competent to judge, tells us this, and says that no one who likes to hear a first-class talker—one of the kind that sways a crowd as few can—ought to fail of attending. The tickets go on sale at Hanaford's to-morrow morning.
